

FAITH

What is Faith?

If you look up the meaning of the word Faith in the dictionary it will give you many definitions.

1. Unquestioning belief that does not require proof or evidence.
2. Anything believed
3. Complete trust and confidence

Those are dictionary definitions of Faith.

What about Christian definitions of Faith? They can be somewhat the same.

My Faith is an unquestionable belief of the Lord and does not need proof or evidence.

He is!

I Completely Believe, Trust, Love and have no doubt of any kind that He is my maker. He has filled me with Hope, Trust and a Spirit filled life. I cannot go a day without having Faith in the Lord.

A person without Faith is like a balloon without air. Where is it going? Where are you going? Think about it. I don't have to. It is empty and going nowhere.*

Like the balloon, I would be lifeless and limp, but put a small amount of hope, or trust to start and I begin to see a little day- a little glimmer of light.

Faith begins very fragile; mine did. It is like a little seed of a flower. You hold it in your hand. You look at it; it looks like a crumbled piece of dirt. But inside that crumbled piece of dirt looking thing is a beautiful flower. Faith! If you have faith and you take that crumbled piece of dirt and put it in some nice looking soil and give it some water and sunshine the Lord has provided for us, in a few weeks you will see a little blossom appear out of the ground. And you keep watering it and occasionally give it a little nourishment and more sunshine and in a few more weeks with excitement, you will see a beautiful flower. Faith!

That's what I was as a little girl. I was a flower seed looking for some good earth and sunshine so I could plant myself so I could grow into a flower of Faith in the Lord. I knew I was missing something in my life, and it was right there in front of me, but at first I could not see it. I was young. When I opened my eyes I realized what I needed was "MY Lord, My Faith in My God!"*

To me, Faith is a very personal heartfelt word. It means different things to different people. Faith feels different to different people. I can't use the word Faith without thinking or feeling the presence of God, who is in the same room with me. Do I fear Him? No! I Respect Him! I Love Him!*
